Last Week's Activities

Last week we spent some time looking at volcanoes and what comes out of volcanoes. In the sensory table, the kids mixed baking soda, water colors, and vinegar to see what would happen. They practiced mixing colors and made lots of bubbles. Saturday was Earth Day, so we spent the week talking about reducing, reusing, and recycling to help the Earth. Caroline's mom was able to come in to the classroom to read us some stories about recycling and keeping the Earth clean.
